Northwestern Christian Home

Miss Mary E. Phillips, Sup't.
Ray C. Smith, Field Representative

It has been vacation time among the employees of the Home. Mrs. Frances Smith, our nurse, enjoyed a few weeks with relatives in Kansas; Mrs. Irene Wirt is now on a long desired trip to Alaska; Mrs Osterloh spent some time with her son and family at Roseburg; and Mrs. Lewis will be gone for a short time. Miss Phillips and Mrs. Inman will take time off in the fall. Friends have visited the Home from many states while they have been on their vacations. Places represented outside of our immediate area include Orting, Port Angeles, Seattle, Olympia and Yakima, Washington; San Francisco, Pasadena and Fresno, California; Lewiston and McCammon, Idaho; Scott City, Kansas; Tully, Minnesota; Kansas City and Kingston, Missouri; Lexington, Lincoln and Overton, Nebraska; Pharr, Texas; McKeesport, Pennsylvania; and Honolulu, Hawaii. Many other visitors from nearby points have admired the beautiful grounds and brought good cheer to our family.

The women's Council of the Beaverton Church, about 35 of them, brought their lunch, including enough for the family, on the 25th, then presented a fine program in the afternoon in keeping with their old style dresses and costumes. The Home was presented with a gift package containing nine high grade plastic table covers.

Chapel speakers in recent weeks have been Howard Cole, of St . Johns, Clifford Trout, of Hillsboro, Hubert Sias, of Mallory Avenue, George Whipple, of Kern Park, J. D. Harden, of Forest Grove, Leland Earls, of Multnomah, Vernon Kullowatz, of Parkrose, and Ray Smith, of the home staff. Portland Central's Keystone Class also presented a program. All of this service is greatly appreciated. Those of the Home attending the farewell for Brother Clifford Trout were Miss Phillis, Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Lewis and Ray Smith.

New members of the Home Family are Mrs. Hattie McColm, of The Dalles, who arrived August 16 and Mrs. Sarah Wimer, of Coquille, arriving on the 27th. A new picture of the family in front of the flowered rockery was taken recently and also new views of the front for publicity purposes. New Home folders are now available featuring age group pictures of the family in seventies, eighties and nineties. Our three ninety year olds, Mrs. Wray, Mrs. Burgett and Miss Myler, also have their picture in the current issue of NBA Family Talk. Brother George M. Kieler, of Newberg, will be ninety years old October 3.

Other birthdays that will be celebrated in the near future are E. G. Drollinger, September 4, 1861; Emma Myler, October 21, 1857; Lucy Wray, October 23, 1857; and Mrs. Laura Talmage, September 28, 1877.

The services of the Home physicians, Drs. G. E. and H. E. Mason, of Beaverton, are very much appreciated, and they are to be commended for the fine spirit in which their service is rendered. There are several names on our waiting list for admission and others whose applications are being "processed." There is great need for churches and individuals to increase rather than decrease their giving this year for benevolence. The carpet fund has received $20.00 recently from Overton, Nebraska, but cash gifts for maintenance have been scarce in August, as is usually the case. Indications are that more churches will participate in the Christmas offering for our "other family" at Beaverton this year, and we trust that others will not forget these "old soldiers of the cross" in budget giving.

Commodities received this summer have included eggs, cakes, cherries, watermelons, miscellaneous items, apples, canned fruit, cucumbers and cantaloupes. Potatoes, corn, peaches and apples can always be used. A good many jars have been sent out but many more are available to anyone who will use them.

We are glad to announce the addition of Horace K. Tapp, of Yakima, and Mrs. Bertha Gumm, of Tekoa, Washington, to our Board of Supervisors, and welcome them to this great fellowship of service.—R.C.S.

Women Hold Board Meeting

Mrs. Mary Pollard, of Berkeley, California, Executive Secretary of the Northern California Christian Women's Missionary Society, formerly missionary to India, was resource leader and guest speaker for the mid-year planning meeting of the Oregon Women's Board. The meeting was held August 17-19 at Lewis and Clark College. Mrs. Ola Smith, state president, presided. C. H. Addleman, Executive Secretary of the general State Board, brought a message on the relationships existing between the various state committees and the Women's Board, and expressed appreciation for the fine spirit of cooperation. Kenneth Johnston, pastor of the church at Dallas, State Chairman of the Crusade, brought a challenging message on the importance of women's part in this, the last year of the Crusade. Miss Jean Keller, who has been working in conjunction with the Oregon Council of Churches in migrant camps this summer, was a visitor one evening. She showed slides and gave a talk on the type of activity carried on by Christian workers in the camps. It was a very revealing and worth while experience for the members of the Board. Certainly, a study of the migrant camp problems fits into our study of "cooperation for a Christian nation." Mrs. Muriel Jordan, for a number of years executive secretary, and Mrs. Thelma Stanley, retiring spiritual life chairman, were present for a part of the meeting, and made helpful suggestions. Mrs. Pauline Johnston, of Dallas, newly elected Recorder; Mrs. James Powell, Youth Superintendent now filling the office vacated by Mrs. Elsie Davis; Mrs. Wayne Wallichs, new district No. 3 Secretary, were welcomed into the group and introduced to their future work. The next meeting of the Board will be held in Portland in January.—Edna L. Burke.

Summer Rallies Held

A Coast district rally was held at Garibaldi on July 8 with the ladies there serving a fine ham dinner. Brother Waddell, host pastor, was master of ceremonies for the program with John Schmid leading the singing, accompanied by Mrs. Welch. Frank Hight, of Amity, provided special numbers on the musical saw, accompanied by Bill Morse, Jr. Mr. Foster, of Garibaldi sang two solo numbers.

Vice-president Dorsey Dent took charge of the business meeting and appointed Ivan Jensen, Howard Brunson, and Lee Doty to serve as the nominating committee for district officers. Bill Morse, Amity minister, brought a message on "Victory."

Yamhill men met at McMinnville on July 18 for their regular rally with some 60 present. The program was opened with a song service led by Grant Cole, host pastor, and special music was provided by local ladies. A short business meeting followed in which local and state reports were given and specific action taken toward the purchase of a new field flag for the Turner flag. (Same was delivered by Vic Emmons, district president, on July 23, and the pole was given a new coat of pant by Vic and J. H. Jack, of Newberg.) Orville Mick, of Albany, was guest speaker.

The Northwest district family picnic was held at Milwaukie on July 25 with about 100 present. Following the picnic dinner a brief program was presented and Alger Fitch, host pastor, brought the message.

The South Willamette district family picnic was held at Avery park, Corvallis, on August 26 and featured a fine fellowship around the table and a short, but inspiring program (by car light) in the park amphitheater. Leslie White, of Albany, talked on the low cost of "high living."—E.P.D.

Classes Begin September 26

Classes will begin at N.C.C. on Monday, September 26. All students should be enrolled in advanced of this date The Orientation and Registration period will be September 19-24. Students who plan to take work concurrently at the University of Oregon will need to be in Eugene during this week. Incoming N.C.C. freshmen will follow a complete schedule of events beginning 8:30 a.m., Wednesday, September 21. This schedule will include various tests, and consultation with faculty advisers.

Applications for admission approved by the admissions committee at Northwest Christian College indicate that the enrollment this year will be approximately the same as a year ago. As usual, Oregon will lead with the largest enrolled. Washington will be second in number.—R.J.G.

Mallory Avenue

The church united with the Highland Baptist in Sunday evening services during July and August, with the first service on July 10. George Hardy, the Baptist minister, preached. Attendance is running above that of former years. —Hubert E. Sias, pastor.

State Secretary - Director's Diary

Our diary reveals the following story for the months of July and August. Two weeks were spent at Turner in the West Oregon Young People's Conference and Pioneer Camp. Attended the dedication service of the Liberty church building. Preached at McMinnville and had a conference with the elders. Attended the district "99" picnic at Milwaukie. Visited the Lab School at Forest Grove. Met with the State Youth Committee and helped plan the fall Youth Meets. Spent two weeks in eastern Oregon directing the Pioneer Camp and Young People's Conference at Cove. Brought 7 chapel messages for the Pioneer Camp. Met in conference with the new Southeast Church in Portland. Attended one sesion of the State Women's Board and talked on State Missions. Preached one sermon at No. Bend and there were two responses for transfer of membership. Directed the Southern Oregon Conference and Pioneer Camp at Bridge. Preached two sermons at Hillsboro and held a conference with the elders. There were 22 office conferences. I performed 3 wedding ceremonies. Travelled 1,389 miles. There were 322 letters mailed out of the office in July and August.—C. H. Addleman.

E. O. Young People's Conference

The East Oregon Young People's Conference was held at Cove, Oregon from August 7 to 13. There were 81 students and 16 members of the faculty. There were two confessions of faith and 1 life recruit. The members of the faculty were: C. H. Addleman, Director; Wm. Siefke, Dean; Joe Jewett, Mrs. Helen Jewett, Mrs. Gladys Helseth, Russell Myers, Gene Robins, Lawrence Porter, Glenn Warner, Mrs. Opal Wiidanen, O. D. Harris, Hugh Foster, Paul Moore Sr., Courtney Swander, C. F. Swander, and Peter Solomon, Missionary. It was one of our best in East Oregon.

News Held Over

A fine batch of news had to be held over until the next issue because space was filled. We work it up for printing in the order received; hence, last minute arrivals are delayed. There are seven organizations cooperating in the printing of the paper. Each pays a proportionate sum. All the news has to be printed on State Board space and that is very limited. Please bear with us in the necessity of the situation.

Financial Accounts of State Office

Those who read the annual report of the Oregon Christian Missionary Convention may have been confused as to the source of income for the various accounts. The missionary account is the same as state missions and all money received from the churches for state missions goes into this account. The educational account derives its support only from the Thanksgiving offering and the Rally Day offering. The convention account receives its income from offerings taken at the state convention, fees collected during convention for camping and lodges, rental of the grounds and profits from the restaurant if and when there are any. The youth account derives its support from the Character Bond sale during our three youth conferences. Sixty-five cents out of every dollar subscribed comes back into the state to the youth fund. The permanent fund receives its income from interest paid by churches on loans and from special gifts. The Oregon Christian account receives its income from organizations or groups who make use of the paper each issue in reporting and presenting their work. The Centennial account has no income now, but is being used as allocated by the board at the close of the Centennial campaign. The Joint Board account is passed through our office as a forwarding agency for the Parkrose project. I trust you will understand the source of income for the various accounts. Of course any individual or church can designate money to any of the accounts at any time. There are good christian people who can make it possible for their money to work to the glory of God after they pass on. Why not include the Permanent Fund or the Turner Grounds in your will? You can make a memorial gift and help build the chapel and other lodge which was part of the Centennial program. Your support of State Missions is urged for it is the heart of all the work and accounts. —C. H. A.

International Convention

The Centennial International Convention will be held October 25-30 at Cincinnati, Ohio. 2,000 disciples had registered by July 1 by sending in the pre-registration fee of $3.00. These have received their hotel or housing assignments. There are over 800 pre-convention Registrars in local churches. The convention management is confident that the goal of ten thousand registrations will be reached. Hotel accomodations are going fast and the housing situation is acute. The farther in advance registrations are received the better the opportunity of getting a favorable assignment. Oregon will be extensively represented, but we urge the continued pre-registration of all who plan to attend. This will be a convention long to be remembered. If Oregon disciples plan to attend. This year should be the time. —Holly Roy Jarvis, State Publicity and Pre-registration for the International Convention.

Secretary Turner Retires

W. F. Turner, Secretary of our Washington churches for more than 17 years, turned his responsibilities over to a successor, Carl Van Doran, in July. In recognition of his distinguished work he has been made "Secretary Emeritus" with generous honorariun for life. Congratulations, Bill!

Displaced Persons

Would some of the Oregon Churches of Christ like to help bring a displaced family from Europe to this country? To do so it is necessary to make four guarantees: (1) A job without displacing any other workers; (2) Housing; (3) Transportation from the port of debarkation to the place of employment; and (4) That the displaced person will not become a public charge on public funds.

Mary Harding is prepared to provide the home in her Christian International House and to make guarantee No 4. She has on hand $26.00 of the approximately $200 that transportation and living will cost until work is begun. She wants to locate a girl who will plan to work a while and save money to enter one of the Bible Colleges.

The Lutheran Church is helping to bring several families to the vicinity of Milwaukie. Some of the downtown Portland churches are helping displaced college students. What are we doing about this great need and opportunity? Would you not like to help some one prepare for a definite Christian service? You can help in two ways: (1) Make a contribution to the $200 fund; and (2) If you live in the Portland area, help to locate a job that any 18 or 20 year old girl can do. It will require about six months to get assurances through and bring the displaced person to Milwaukie. Perhaps you know of someone who will need a girl to help with housework for a few months at that time. Name and address of employer, and salary, must be stated. Write to Mary Harding, 3006 Harrison St., Milwaukie, Oregon. A report of progress will be made.

436 In Boy's Camps

With the closing circle at Camp Myrtlewood (Bridge) on August 20 the 15th year of Christian Boys' Camps under sponsorship of the Ninety and Nine Men's Brotherhood came to its conclusion. Registration in the camps was as follows: Turner, 93; Cove, 52; Crescent Lake, 81; Wi-Ne-Ma, 101; Grayback, 35; and Bridge, 74. A total of 125 boys responded in the decision services—115 confessing Christ and 10 making decisions as life-work recruits. While the number of camps was the same as in 1948, two changes were made. The Turner camp was of one week's duration and a new camp was begun in Southern Oregon district at Camp Grayback, 12 miles out of Cave Junction en route to the Oregon Caves.

As in former years, a word of commendation is due the ministers, N.C.C. students, and the cooks who gave unstintingly of their services to make each camp a week of victory for the Master. Also, special word is due the business managers whose efforts bulk large in the total program but are often unnoticed. Edwin Beem at Cove, Victor Hershiser at Crescent Lake, Leo Woodruff at Wi-Ne-Ma, C. A. Eide at Grayback, and Elmer Newton at Bridge, all rendered real service in performing the many duties necessary in keeping provisions on hand, plumbing and lights in order, mail deliveries on time, etc., etc. Leanna Meserve added a part of the manager's work to her duties as camp secretary in the Turner camp when your reporter left for the Cove Camp which ran concurrently.—E.P.D.

World Call Subscriptions

Mrs. Louise Moseley, National World Call Secretary, states in a letter dated July 27, that the total number of World Call subscriptions in Oregon for the past missionary year was 1,676. This is far below our goal for the Crusade. This means that all of our missionary organizations in the state are going to have to work harder this present year to try to increase our subscription list. So far as the National record is concerned there are 683 churches enrolled in the 1948-49 Ten Percent Legion, with a subscription list of 62,352. 1,159 churches held their own last year and a few even increased their subscription lists over the previous year. Following is the Ten Percent Legion churches in Oregon: Albany, 58; Astoria, 28; Burns, 18; Dallas, 42; Falls City, 13; Forest Grove, 74; Gladstone, 28; Junction City, 26; McMinnville, 28; Ontario, 24; Portland First, 374; Portland Kern Park, 75; Portland Mallory Avenue, 92; Portland Parkrose, 17; Silverton, 28; Springfield, 27. To these churches we offer our congratulations! For the benefit of those who might not know the requirements for the Ten Percent Legion honors, I might say that it is necessary to have a subscription list which equals ten Per Cent of the church membership.—Edna L. Burke.

An Urgent Appeal

J. Russell Morse, intrepid missionary and father of missionaries, whose work in the regions of the Mekong, Salwee and Irrawaddy Rivers, along the borders of China, Burma and Tibet, has met with marked success, recently sent an urgent appeal to the Editor of the Christian Standard to solicit the prayers of the saints for the workers in that mission as the baneful effect of Communist domination extends ever westward in China. Because of the urgency of the appeal we quote it in full, as it appeared on the front page of the Christian Standard, issue of August 13.

"Brother Butler, please do what you can to stir all those who know of this work to pray with special earnestness for all Tibetan Lisuland workers. Our situation is almost indescribably perplexing, precarious, perilous. Truly I believe the most grievous and dangerous situation in the world today is in China. Unless God helps in marvelous ways we're sunk. Every one of the Morses who could be of service at this time is on the firing line out here. And our 'independent associates' are doing very commendably. But, just lately, events have taken an alarmingly unfavorable turn. May God help us! Gratefully, your brother in Christ.—J. R. M."

The same issue of the Standard (August 13, 1949) begins a thrilling article by LaVerne Morse, the younger son of J. Russell, entitled "China Journal—Chapter in Saga of Missions." This is not intended as a plug for any paper; but anyone who reads this three-part article will be inspired and challenged by the courage, resourcefulness and devotion of these brave soldiers of the cross.—J.F.C.

Dining Hall Management

Due to the fact that W. B. McMillan suffered a light stroke during the summer the McMillans will be unable to operate the college dining hall this year. Other arrangements are being made which, as always, will keep the cost of food at a minimum.—R.J.G.

Crusade News

What If . . . .

"What if there isn't enough money to send us after we finish our preparation?" These words were spoken by a young man who, with his wife had just been accepted as candidates in the June 21st meeting of the Board of Trustees of the United Christian Missionary Society. He had just completed four years of College work, and his wife, one year beyond. And together they will take approximately four years additional training before they are commissioned by the President of the United Society for foreign missionary service.

The words were spoken with great feeling. After all, a rather large segment of life was being invested in preparation for the foreign field. The decision for life-time Christian Work had been made through prayer and self examination. The cost had been counted.

The question had been provoked by the painful action of the Trustees in voting negatively on many requests for appropriations for piercing needs in every department of the Society. There just wasn't enough money to meet the needs. The young man had listened to the reluctant rejection of these tragic appeals.

Should the Crusade fall short of its financial goal this young couple may be thwarted in doing God's will.

It is a sober thought.

The answer? Victory!

"Oh" and "Ah"

Twenty-four boys in the Southern Christian Home, in Atlanta, Georgia, "Oh" and "Ah" every day as they look upon the architect's drawing of their proposed new home. There is no doubt of the need. They are now crowded into entirely inadequate quarters with other children. And they would be even more crowded if Miss Ida McMillan, Superintendent, admitted other boys now on the waiting list.

The boy's building, the dream of Miss Sue Steiner Hock, Superintendent for 25 years, now retired, is a Crusade objective.

This and similar needs in other benevolent homes will be met with Crusade victory.

The Centennial Convention of the Disciples of Christ in Cincinnati, October 25-30, 1949, will commemorate the beginning of our cooperative work as a people one hundred years ago. In this same city of Cincinnati, October 23-27, 1849, 156 leaders gathered for the purpose of effecting an organized cooperation in advancement of the missionary program of our Lord.

The close of this century of growth is climaxed by the fact of A Crusade for a Christian World. It is fitting that our brotherhood should be engaged in the most expansive cooperative effort of its history as the second century of cooperation is entered.

The convention will be more than an echo of yesterday. It would be better that we forget the giants of yesterday than remember them in such a way as to paralyze our efforts for tomorrow.

A "Voice" will be heard in every session of the convention . While every convention address will be surcharged with the passion and power of the Crusade, at each session there will be a moving message of six minutes by an outstanding leader in cooperation — "The Voice of the Crusade."

It was felt this would be more appropriate and impressive than a major address on the Crusade. For, after all, the Crusade includes all that shall be covered in the addresses.

With the galaxy of great speakers, and the unmatched challenge of the occasion, we have a right to expect that words may be spoken which may be quoted before a larger gathering of united Christians in the year of our Lord, 2049.

Crusade Roof

As the Crusade helps the younger churches, so they are able to do more for themselves. There is a $4,000 item in the Crusade asking for iron roofs for twenty chapels in the Philippines.

There is a chapel at Baay, in Abra Province, Philippine Islands, the first of any kind in that valley. The local congregation cut the timbers and built the building with walls of cocoanut fronds. Aiding in the construction was a Bible training student from Vigan who had studied at the Provincial Trade School. Only the roof was a Crusade gift.

Paul Kennedy writes, "It was cool inside during the three day preaching convention when twelve confessions were taken."

Another Crusade Building

Memorial Christian Church, Muskogee, Oklahoma, organized April 19, 1948, needed a place of worship. The substantial structure pictured here, although not a church building, was well located and furnished the 148 members satisfactory space for worship and education. The purchase was made possible through a loan of $1,000 from the Crusade allotment of the Board of Church Extension.

Eleven months later, in June 1949, their treasurer, Mr. W. R. Shelton, wrote Mr. Rolland Sheafor, treasurer of Church Extension, in reference to the loan, "Now we feel that we can return one-fifth of it so that you can pass it along to some other struggling church that needs it as we did. So enclosed you will find a check for $200 to apply on the payment of our Crusade loan.

Youth at International Convention

An effort is being made to get a large representation of the Youth of our brotherhood to attend the Centennial International Convention in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 25-30. Special sleeping accomodations for Friday and Saturday nights are made available. For boys the Y.M.C.A. will furnish beds at $1.00 per night; the Ohio National Guard armory will house boys for the same price. For girls the Y.W.C.A. will be available at $1.00 per night; Emanuel Center at 85¢ per night; and Norwood Church at 75¢ per night. For assignments to any of these write to Rev. Fred W. Michel, Chairman, 25 Graves Street, Eerlanger, Kentucky, accompanied by remittance covering the cost of the two nights and $1.50 convention registration fee (special youth rate).

The Third Year Crusade The Last Year FOR A CHRISTIAN WORLD

Kenneth Johnston, Editor

A Crusade for a Christian World is more than a program. It is Christianity in action. However, it requires a working program to produce the action. The name sounds good; it even looks good on paper just as quoting Scripture sounds good and is good. But the important part is not how it sounds or looks; but the action and kind of life it motivates. The best evidence of the success of the Crusade is seen in the life of those churches who have taken the Crusade seriously. Those who have implemented a program that would produce Crusade results have found themselves Crusading.

Our Oregon churches are familiar enough with the name and many of of them are Crusading. It is our prayer that in this third and final year all of our churches will be crusading churches. It isn't easy to be a crusading congregation! It requires more prayer, more soul-winning, more planning, more work, more giving, more Christianity than ever before. It is a struggle and a pull every inch of the way. But the church that does it will experience new life and the thrill that comes from a job well done.

It is not too late to begin the Crusade. Take a good look at the Crusade objectives. Then in prayer and faith build a Crusade program that will be worthy of your congregation, and of Him who said, "What do ye more than others?"

Liberty Church

The Liberty Christian Church was dedicated on Sunday, July 10. The combined space of sanctuary, basement and alcove failed to accomodate the crowd.

The many visitors from Christian Churches throughout the valley indicated the wide interest that has been taken in this cooperative project. The Liberty church is a striking illustration of what can be done when we combine our forces. The State Missionary Society, Ninety and Nine, the Crusade and some of the surrounding churches are helping the local congregation to finance and establish this work. A loan from the Board of Church Extension plus a $2,000 gift from Crusade funds has helped immeasurably in making possible this beautiful edifice.

Elery Parrish is leading the congregation until they are ready for a full time pastor. He lists some of their immediate needs that your church, or some individual, might like to underwrite. They are:

2,000 sq. ft. flooring	$500.00
113 opera seats for sanctuary	$282 50
Pulpit and table	$100.00
8 tables and benches	$120.00

The above items must be paid for. They are in addition to the loan on the building. The local congregation is doing everything possible but they need our help. Is this project in your church budget?

God is blessing the Liberty Church. They now have 42 members and a Bible School of approximately 100. Together we can build new churches.

Activity Outline Of Corvallis Christian House

The purpose of Christian House is "To bring students into a personal relationship with Jesus, the Christ, as Saviour and Lord of their lives. To provide for the growth of those who have accepted Christ and to reach those who have never accepted Jesus as Lord."

To accomplish this underlying purpose many means are used:

1.—The students are encouraged to attend and participate in the services and functions of the local church.

2.—Planning retreat — held each Fall, at which time the group outlines its program for the year.

3.—Financially—the students help to support their program by giving through the budget of the local church.

4.—Evangelism—this past year several members of the group were baptized into the church. Many students accepted affiliate memberships with the local congregation while attending school.

5.—Activities and study—Regular meetings are held each week for recreational, intellectual, and worshipful activities. Last spring the group sponsored a Bible Study group.

Some Christian Church Needs At The College Campuses

From Christian Church families in Oregon there go each year to the University and the State College about 700 young people. They are from your churches. They go for training in agriculture, business, law and other life activities. Frequently they have gone away to college, lost touch with the church, left college and settled down in the home town or elsewhere without renewing church contacts. This is tragic not only because it has weakened the church by draining off some of its potentially strongest leadership, but tragic because it has meant that community activities have passed into the hands of men and women without special Christian interest and training. The world's problems will be solved by men and women who have both a college education and firm Christian conviction. The churches have a great responsibility to make every possible effort to enable their young people away at college to retain a vital interest in, and contact with, the church, and to enlist prospective Christian leadership from the entire student body.

Reserve These Dates

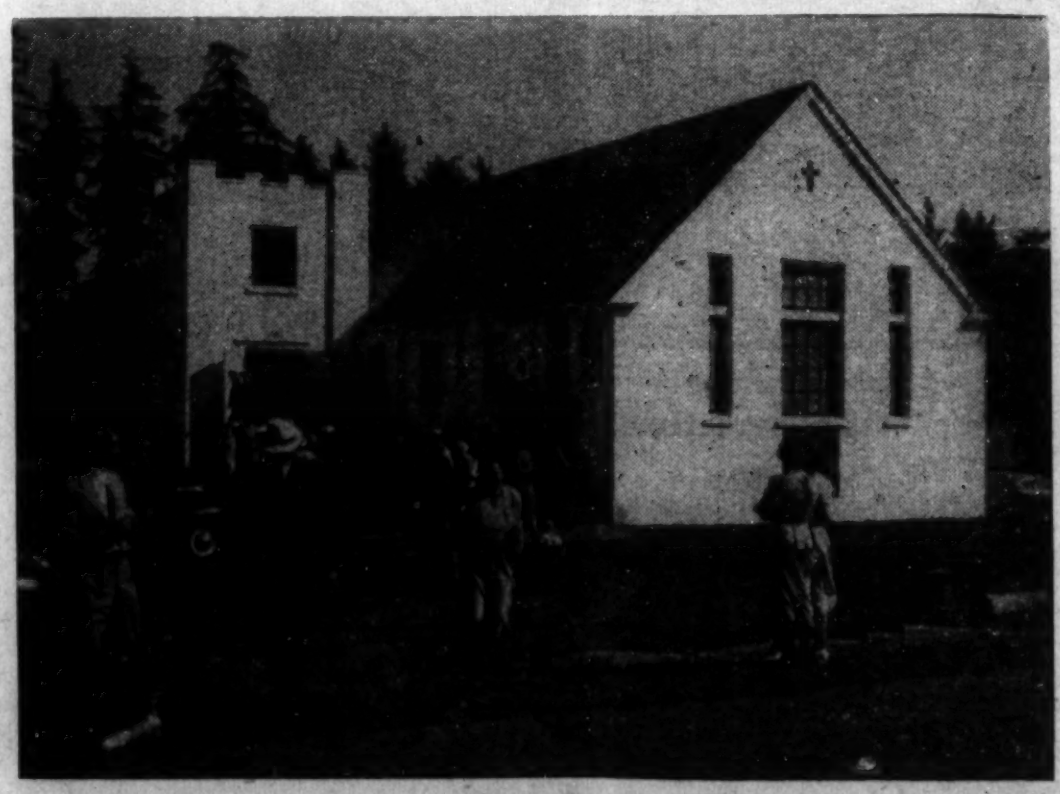
Three area Crusade Assemblies are planned for September. These should be of interest to every church. They will be one-day assemblies. The afternoons will be given to discussion groups with competent leaders, dealing with the various phases of church service which the Crusade is emphasizing. The evenings will begin with an N.C.C. banquet sponsored by the College. This banquet will be followed by a mass inspirational service. The assemblies are planned for:

La Grande, September 12.
Salem First, September 14.
Grants Pass, September 15.

This is the final year of the Crusade. Plan now to share in the Crusade assembly closest to you.

Christian Houses Serving Our Students

The Christian Churches of Oregon are extending their ministry through specilized work on the campuses of the University of Oregon and Oregon State. It is gratifying to know that when we send our church young people to college they will receive spiritual guidance and encouragement in churchmanship. The house in Eugene is directed by Mrs. Dulcina Elliott, and the one in Corvallis by Fontelle Sybouts. Both of these houses will be stronger in their ministry through receiving Crusade funds: $15,000 to each house. A gift to the Crusade is a gift to Christian houses.



Liberty Church

"Am I My Brother's Keeper"

Cain's question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" will be the theme of the 13th annual state convention of the Oregon Ninety and Nine Men's Brotherhood. The convention date is Monday, October 10, and the place is the Mallory Avenue Christian Church (corner N. E. Alberta) in Portland. The program committee, under the leadership of Edwin L. Crook, of the McKenzie district, is busy lining up an interesting and inspiring program with Willie White scheduled to bring the keynote message in the afternoon and Walter Fiscus the evening address.

Brother White was formerly state evangelist for the Ninety and Nine, serving five years in the field. He is now minister of the Fairmount Church of Christ in Eugene. Brother Fiscus is also well known to Oregonians, having served as minister of the First Church in Eugene prior to taking graduate work in Europe. He is now in the evangelistic field after conducting a group of Christian young people on an European tour this past summer.

Arthur Parrish, of Newberg, will be the convention song leader and Northwest Christian College promises a male quartet for special music. Boys from the camps will again compete in a speaking contest for the honor of representing the boys at the men's banquet of the 1950 Turner convention. Dallas Meserve will conduct a pre-prayer service just after the opening of registrations at 1:15 p.m. The afternoon session will open at 2:15. The Mallory Avenue ladies will begin serving the convention banquet at 5:15 in order to accommodate all delegates, and the evening session will open with an organ prelude at 7:15.

Program pre-views will be mailed to each church with further details. Every man is asked to serve on the publicity committee and to invite some man or young man who has never attended the state convention. Mark your calendar now!—Ed P. Dewees.

The Portland Jail Mission

Not many people are aware of the fact that W. S. Crockett is conducting a mission at the Portland city jail each Sunday. He reports that one Mexican boy has definitely accepted Christ. Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee writes to Brother Crockett: "You are to be commended for your splendid effort and I do hope that you will find time to be of assistance in an organized program."

Brother Crockett writes that the mission can use back number Sunday School leaflets (not quarterlies). Send them to W. S. Crockett, 3149 S. E. Belmont, Portland 15, Oregon.

Milton

There were 6 baptisms during June and July. It was reported at Turner convention that Milton ranked 7th in baptisms. Rev. and Mrs. Russell Myers, pastors, with 6 of the young people, attended the convention and young peoples conference. Both Mr. and Mrs. Myers attended the camps and conferences at Cove.

The elders and deacons take the communion to shutins.

Members of the church supplied the Cove camps with fruits and vegetables.

Peter Solomon, of India, spoke at the morning service July 31. The young people are collecting pencils for the children of India.

Letter From Eva Marie Johnson

A recent letter from Eva Marie Johnson, new missionary to Belgian Congo field describes in a graphic way the trip across the ocean and some of her experiences since arriving at Coquilhatville on May 11. In part she says: "It is impossible to put the experiences of the past two months into the space alloted me. As most of you already know, I came out to work in the treasurer's office. Consequently, upon my arrival I immediately inherited my responsibilities and was submerged in journals and ledgers. Inasmuch as the Lewises were soon to leave for furlough I had to cram in all the knowledge my feeble brain would hold in a very short time. However, I sneaked away from the office occasionally to try to get a total picture of our own Coquilhatville work. There is the church, the school, three chapels and our work at the military camp. Meetings and native workers in each of these places require much time and supervision. Then there are the countless palavers between natives which the missionary is expected to help solve. The numerous workmen who keep up the grounds and buildings must be supervised and paid, which is no small job two days a week.

"Africa is much as I expected it to be—beautiful landscape with glorious sunsets. The life of the native people is hard. Women especially are old beyond their years because of the weight of heavy burdens, constant child-bearing and long trips to market. One is impressed with their unhurried attitude as they go about their work. And yet, beneath the surface there is a deep longing for a better way of life. This is especially manifest by the younger group; they are eager for all the knowledge they can get. Inquirers classes are constantly filled. We've had 48 baptisms since I came. Almost every Sunday there is a backslider reinstated or a Christian marriage. Congolese are just like Americans in many ways—especially in that Christians moving from one place to another forget to take their church membership with them. There's a great field here to be cultivated if we only had the personnel to do it."

Let us not forget Eva Marie and the other missionaries; they need our encouragement. Letters and prayers help. —E.L.B.

McKenzie Men Elect

The bi-monthly rally of the McKenzie district was held at Junction City on August 15 and the following officers were elected to be installed at the October meeting; E. L. Crook, Coburg, president; V. L. Hershiser, Eugene, vice-president; Dr. R. T. Burnett, Eugene, secretary; Lyle Kellogg, Eugene, treasurer; and Ross J. Griffeth, Willie White, and Dallas Murphy, executive board members. The male quartet of the First Christian Church presented special numbers and Judge Barber, of Eugene, was the guest speaker.—E.P.D.

Sellwood

There were 32 young people and adult leaders attended camp at Bible Rock, Thorp, Washington, this summer. Eleven boys and girls went to Wi-Ne-Ma. There were 2 baptisms and 2 reconsecrations in August. Seven were baptized at the Union Gospel Mission as a result of our church's work there. Freeman Yardley is our minister.—Mrs. C. H. Fowler, Reporter.

Melba Palmer Rees Writes

Mrs. Rozelle Henry, forwarding agent for Melba Palmer Rees, sends the following excerpt from a letter written by Melba (air mail) August 7:

"Yesterday we received our second warning from the American Counsulate, advising us all to leave while transportation is still available. Just the other day the Morses (J. Russell Morse family) received word from Eugene Morse via some people coming down from Likiang — they couldn't send the information by mail because it is censored. All that area is ruled by Communists now and it seems the missionaries are not allowed to do anything there. Our group here had a conference today and Mr. Morse and LaVerne plan to stay and try to get up into Burma, but advise all the women to leave. We have about decided to begin making preparations to leave while waiting the Lord's leading as to where to go. We have written to three other prospective fields of service, and are praying daily for definite guidance . . . Please pray much these days for strength and guidance for us."

Melba and her husband have been in the Kunming area for some time, along with a number of other missionaries. It has been their purpose to open a new work in some lower section. The Tibetan-Lisuland Mission opened a work at Kunming some time ago as a sort of way-station and extension of their larged work "up country." That explains the presence of a part of the Morse family there recently. Harold Taylor, Melvert Byers, and others have also been working in the Kunming area. Melba Palmer's forwarding agent, Mrs. Rozelle Henry, has a new address, 1357 Onyx St., Eugene, Oregon.—J. Frank Cunningham.

New Publications

On October 1 a change will be made in the devotional manual HEARTHSTONE, and two new publications will come into existence. The devotional booklet will be continued under the name of THE SECRET PLACE. The price of this booklet will be 10¢ per copy per quarter in quantities of five or more. The name HEARTHSTONE will be continued in a new publication as a family life magazine. Each month it will offer 52 pages of Christian fiction, excellent stories to tell to children, family worship ideas, tips on good radio programs and books, pre- and post-marital counselling games and puzzles, hobbies and crafts, picnic and party ideas, a glimpse of how other families live together, and much other reading for all members of the family. The quarterly subscription is 60¢ each per quarter in quantities of five or more. Individual yearly subscriptions, $2.50 each. Both publications may be ordered from The Christian Board of Publication, St. Louis, Missouri.

Oretown Church Lost

In a recent communication from the pastor of the Oretown Church the request was made to remove the church from our records as part of the Christian Churches of Oregon. They want to be known as an undenominational community church unaffiliated with any church. Elery Parrish and Don Byers did a fine work there and did all in their power to make it a New Testament church. We trust their labors may bear fruitage yet.

BENJAMIN L. HICKS

Brother Hicks has been a guest in the Turner Memorial Home for several years. He passed away on July 29 and was buried from the church in Turner, Elery A. Parrish, officiating. Brother Hicks was one of our good ministers of Christ, having served as pastor at Madras, Newberg, Yamhill, Coquille and Yoncalla. He leaves a wife to mourn him. He had a host of warm friends in the ministry.

CLIVE TAYLOR

Death came suddenly to Clive Taylor, pastor of the Findlay Street Christian Church, Seattle, Sunday morning, August 21, 1949. He had finished his sermon, and the invitation song was being sung. He sat down before the song was finished and the congregation did not know that their pastor was dead until the song was ended. It was a glorious way to die. His friends will remember that he was one time pastor at Klamath Falls, and later at St. Johns Church. He was a good pastor, a good preacher, and a staunch friend. We may expect to see his name written high in the Lamb's Book of Life. His wife, and a daughter Katherine Saunders, survive him. A multitude of folk will grieve with them.

SAMUEL ELLIS STEVENS

Samuel Ellis Stevens, husband of Dean Mary E. Stevens, of Northwest Christian College, died in Eugene, August 22, 1949. Mr. Stevens had been in ill health for many months before his death but maintained a splendid Christian spirit throughout the time.

Mr. Stevens was born in Pennsylvania, baptized in a creek in Kansas, and made Oregon his home for nearly half a century. He was an active member of the Methodist church, profoundly interested in good music, and always ready to share his knowledge and culture with others.

The many students of Northwest Christian College who remember him well, will regret his passing even though it came after a long and useful life. He was 84 years of age at the time of his death.—R.J.G.

Christian Service Camp Reports

As this copy is being prepared we have no report from the Willamette Valley Christian Service Camp; We wish we did, for we know it was a great camp.

The records of the Wi-Ne-Ma Christian Service Camp shows an enrollment of 136 students, with a total of 168 during the Junior High week, and the 115 students with a total of 147 in the Senior Camp. Total student enrollment, 251; total camp attendance for the two weeks, 315. There were 13 confessions of faith, and about 20 decisions for full time service.

A report just received from the Southern Oregon Christian Service Camp, at Glendale, shows: 75 enrolled in the Youth camp, and 51 enrolled in the intermediate camp. In the two camps there were 20 confessions of faith, and 16 new Life Recruits. Brother L. H. Camp writes, "We had an unusually fine faculty and the spirit was exceptionally good."—J.F.C.

Ad Interim Ministry

A. F. Van Slyke will serve the Hillsboro congregation until they shall secure a permanent pastor. And C. F. Swander will do a like service for the Englewood church.

Philippine Story Thrills

I have been perusing the Manila Christian, Benjamin F. Anderson, Editor, which just arrived. The front page article, "Conquering for Christ in Bicolandia," reads like an account of some of the apostle Paul's experiences as it tells of fire crackers thrown by trouble makers exploding under the preacher's desk and in the laps of an elder and a deacon; rocks being thrown in an effort to break up another meeting; and a disturbance by drunken fishermen; as well as "Huck" raids on nearby barrios; but of many baptisms in spite of the difficulties. These were experiences of Benjamin Allison and Brother Romulo.

Another article by Robert H. Shondelmayer tells of his own experiences preaching and baptizing converts, after the big fire that destroyed Cotobato. Still another article tells of the baptizing of more than 200 prisoners in one of the national penitentiaries. In yet another article J. Willis Hale, well known to many Oregonians, tells of the work among and by the students in Manila Bible Seminary. And then, Mrs. Marjorie Schondelmayer gives an interesting account of the experiences of the two Schondelmayer boys, David and Paul, during the October fire.

A brief report for 1948 in the mission shows: 1,304 baptisms, 7 new churches, 6 new church buildings, and 3 new buildings under construction.

Philippine missionaries may be addressed as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Hale, P. O. Box 2774, Manila, P. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Selby, Aparri, Cagayan, P. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schondelmayer, Cotobato, Mindanao, P. I.; and Mrs. Carrie Wold and Miss Ruth L. Smith, Box 11-B Chandlerville, Illinois.—J.F.C.

Student Preaching Points Needed

Dean Wm. Siefke, who helps Northwest Christian College students in training for the Christian ministry get in touch with preaching points says that one of the greatest needs just now is for more points where advanced students can serve as pastors while in college. Several points which were formerly served now have located pastors. Also, N.C.C. has many more advanced students available than at any time in the past.

Students have opened a number of new points but still more are needed. Established congregations can render a significant service by helping to open points. Dean Siefke promises that students will be made available to do vigorous work.—R.J.G.

God and the Ministry

This is the theme of the 1949 observence of the Week of the Ministry, October 9-16. This is the occasion on which we recognize and honor the leadership of our churches.

Each year some two hundred of our ministers and missionaries are retired by old age, disability or death. We know how many prepared leaders there must be for replacements. If the church is to expand there must be new leaders beyond those needed for replacements. To be a crusading brotherhood is to grow. As we honor the leaders of the past and rejoice with those of the present we can take hope for the future. Let us make the observance of the Week of the Ministry a sign of hope.

Rice Will Teach Speech

Prof. Ward A. Rice will be in charge of the Speech work at Northwest Christian College this fall. He has conducted the Speech II and Advanced Homiletics classes in previous years. He will now assume responsibility for Speech I, which was formerly handled by Prof. Carstensen.

During the summer Prof. Rice studied in the Department of speech at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. This department is recognized as the leader in Speech work in America. Prof. Rice had the advantage of the personal counselling of the Head of the Department and in conference with him planned the schedule of work for the coming year at N.C.C.—R.J.G.

Girl's Camps Grow

With the second year of the Christian Girls' Camp at Wi-Ne-Ma and the first such camp at Turner, girls demonstrated that they are just as enthusiastic campers as are the boys. Attendance at Wi-Ne-Ma was over, 90 showing a real increase over 60 who attended in 1948. There were 30 enrolled at Turner and as the camp there continues it will without doubt show a real increase. Two girls made the good confession at Turner and the exact figures are not available on the number of decisions at Wi-Ne-Ma unless elsewhere reported in this issue.

The Turner camp was sponsored by the Ninety and Nine Men and the Wi-Ne-Ma camp by the Wi-Ne-Ma Christian Camp under the general supervision of Wm. F. Morse. The camps followed a very similar program and shared in preparation of notebooks and other supplies. Mrs. Ray C. Smith served as dean of the Turner camp and Dallas Meserve as director. —E.P.D.

Sellwood

The Sellwood Christian Church has shown marked growth in all departments under the ministry of Freeman A. Yardley as pastor since January 1.

The Sunday School has increased over 20 percent. The Christian Endeavor has trebled its membership, and the evening services have more than doubled in attendance. There have been 9 baptisms and 5 added by statement. Mrs. Jane Peddicord attended state convention as a delegate from the missionary society.—Mrs. C. H. Fowler, Publicity Chairman.

Salem First

July additions numbered 11 baptisms and 8 by statement. 125 committee members and workers held a planning conference for the year's activities. Resource leaders were: Kenneth Johnston, Dallas; Dr. and Mrs. Victor Morris, Eugene; Mrs. Kendall Burke, Eugene; Mrs. Alice Guiley, Eugene; and Ruth Towne, Texas Christian University. The Daily Vacation Bible School enrolled 220 for the period July 11-22. It was held in 12 homes in the city. —Dudley Strain, minister.

Our Evangelists

Gene Chamberlain held a three weeks meeting at Yoncalla in June with 4 added by statement. B. Ross Evans held a meeting in Scio with 7 baptisms and 2 added otherwise. Thus the kingdom progresses.

MILWAUKIE—1 baptism and 15 others added in July.—Alger M. Fitch, pastor.

Crusade Assemblies

Northwest Christian College is in charge of the dinner programs at the "spring-board" Crusade assemblies in Oregon during September. The places and dates are: La Grande, September 12; Salem First, September 14; Grants Pass, September 15. In each case the dinner time is 6:30.

At each of these meetings the place of N.C.C. in the Crusade program will be emphasized. The Christian Houses at Corvallis and Eugene, which are also sharing in the Crusade, will be represented. It is planned to make these dinner meetings real N.C.C. rallies In order to help the host churches they should be notified as to how many are to attend from each of the churches of the area.—Ross J. Griffeth.

Bridge Conference

The Southern Oregon conference was held at Bridge August 21-27. We all had our fingers crossed because of the late date, fearing bad weather conditions. But it turned out nearly perfect. There were 41 young people and 32 intermediates. Two were graduates. Character bond sales went to $106.00 of which $98.00 was cash. A missionary offering of $56.01 was received at the communion service. Phil Ryan, Junction City, served as dean, and C. H. Addleman was director. Both men distinguished themselves as conference leaders. At the last vesper service on Friday night there were two accepted Christ and 12 dedicated themselves to full time service.—C.F.S.

E. O. Pioneer Camp

The East Oregon Pioneer Camp was held at Cove, Oregon, July 31-August 7, 1949. There were 60 students and 8 members of the faculty. There was 1 confession of Christ and 3 life work recruits. Those serving on the faculty were: C. H. Addleman, Director, Mrs. Elsie Mosier, Mrs. Hazel Myers, Lawrence Porter, Don Maxfield, Courtney Swander, C. F. Swander, and Peter Solomon, Missionary. The weather was sweltering hot, but all took it in stride. It was an excellent camp.

Crusade Help Available

Following the Crusade Assemblies, the last of which is September 15, we will have expert help in assisting our churches to achieve their Crusade objectives. If your church can use assistance in either program activities or the financial goal, please write to your Crusade chairman, or to the State office.

Eugene First

Carroll Roberts, of Mason City, Iowa, has accepted a call to the First Church at Eugene. He will begin his ministry there October 1. Carroll is not a stranger in Oregon. After graduating from the college at Eugene he held successful pastorates at Montavilla and The Dalles. Perhaps his most distinguished work was at the Ninth St. Church in Washington, D. C. While in the capitol city he was a member of the Chaplain's Commission which passed upon the eligibility of chaplains for army and navy service. We welcome him back as an Oregonian again.

POWELL BUTTE—3 added by statement August 7. Exceptionally fine attendance at both Bible School and worship service. —D. L. Penhollow, pastor.

No. Willamette Installs

The North Willamette district rally was held in the Salem First Christian Church on August 22 with 82 in attendance. John Hash, of Monmouth, led the singing, accompanied by Clyde Freeman at the piano. Abe Friesen presided over the business meeting in which the report of the nominating committee was given and the following officers unanimously elected: Harold Stapleton, Dallas, president; Paul Maddox, Monmouth, vice-president; Harry Vetter, Silverton, secretary; and Wm. Tanner, Salem, treasurer. Elery Parrish installed the new officers immediately, then sang a duet number with Howard Hutchins, guest speaker. Brother Hutchins gave a stirring evangelistic challenge on the scripture, "Even as He sent me, so send I you." —E.P.D.

Mrs. Burke Visits Son

Mrs. Edna L. Burke, Executive Secretary, spent the last week of August in San Leandro, California, helping her son Hermon and family to get settled in their new field of service. For the past two years Hermon has been the pastor of the church at Tulare, California, which position he recently resigned to become pastor of the church in San Leondro. He will be doing graduate work at the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley for the next two or three years while carrying on the work of the church. Hermon, a graduate of Northwest Christian College, is the younger son of K. E. Burke, who for six years before his death in 1943 was President of Northwest Christian College. While in College Hermon was pastor of the church at Fall Creek, Oregon.

Portland First

There were 13 by statement and one baptism during July and August according to "The First Christian". Clay J. Pomeroy, Assistant Pastor, was chosen "Citizen of the Week" by the Portland Traction Co. Congratulations.

David Eugene

Was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Warner at The Dalles Hospital, July 14, 1949. He is now "at home" to his friends in Heppner, Oregon, where his dad is the honored pastor of the church.

STAYTON— 4 confessions, 1 by statement, 3 rededications in July. —Clyde Freeman, pastor.

Mallory Avenue

The union services with Highland Baptist Church during July and August resulted in attendance from 150 to 300. They were held at the Baptist Church in July and at Mallory in August. The morning attendance at Mallory has run 30% above last year. A heavy Fall program, including fellowship and evangelistic evangelism, is under way. There have been 56 additions since dedication of the new building in March.—H. E. Sias, pastor.

Gladstone

Two baptisms not reported. A new Hammond Organ has been installed. I have been appointed head chaplain of the 403rd Troop Carrier Wing at the Portland Air Base. Wilbur Rolla Hensley, pastor.
